LEGAL NOTICE NO. 58

PUBLIC PROCUREMENT AND DISPOSAL ACT, 2005
(No. 3 of 2005)

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred by section 140 of the Public Procurement and Disposal Act, 2005, the Minister for Finance makes the following Regulations-

THE PUBLIC PROCUREMENT AND DISPOSAL
(PREFERENCE AND RESERVATIONS) REGULATIONS, 2011

PART I — PRELIMINARY

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Public Procurement and Disposal (Preference and Reservations) Regulations, 2011.

2. In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires-

No. 10 of 2003.
"Constituency Development Fund" shall have the meaning assigned to it under the Development Fund Act, 2003;

"disadvantaged group" means persons perceived to be denied, by mainstream society access to resources and tools which are useful for their survival in a way that disadvantages them, or individuals who have been subjected to prejudice or cultural bias because of their identities as members of groups without regard to their individual qualities, and includes enterprises owned by women, the youth and persons with disabilities;

“disability” shall have the meaning assigned to it under the Persons with Disabilities Act, 2003;

No. 8 of 1998.
"Local Authorities Transfer Fund" shall have the meaning assigned to it under the Local Authorities 1998 Transfer Fund Act, 1998;

"local preference" means the right or opportunity to select a person from an identified target group that is considered more desirable than another in a constituency, local authority or county;
"micro enterprises" means a business undertaking with an initial-
   (a) staff establishment of not more than ten employees, and
   (b) annual turnover or investment not exceeding Kenya Shillings five hundred thousand;

"preference" means the right or opportunity to select a person from an identified target group which is considered more desirable than another;

"reservations" means exclusive preference to procure goods, works and services set aside to a defined target group within a specified threshold or region;

"small enterprises" means a business undertaking with an initial-
   (a) staff establishment of not less than eleven and not more than fifty employees, and
   (b) annual turnover or investment not exceeding five million Kenya Shillings;

"target group" means designated tenderers identified /by the Minister to benefit from the preference and reservations schemes;

"youth" means persons who have attained the age of eighteen years but have not attained the age of thirty-five years.

3. These Regulations shall apply to procurements by public entities when soliciting tenders from the following target groups-
   (a) small enterprises;
   (b) micro enterprises;
   (c) disadvantaged groups;
   (d) citizen contractors;
   (e) local contractors; or
   (f) citizen contractors in joint-venture or sub-contracting arrangements with foreign suppliers.
4. The purpose of these Regulations is to promote local, national and regional industry and support socio-economic development by defining:

(a) the target group and eligibility requirements for benefitting from the preference and reservations schemes;

(b) the percentage margin of the preference, where applicable;

(c) the goods, works and services set aside or reserved for specified target groups;

(d) the regions within which to apply the scheme, and

(e) the means of measuring its effectiveness in achieving the objectives.

PART II—QUALIFICATION OF TARGET GROUPS

5. (1) A person shall be qualified to benefit from the preference and reservations schemes if the person-

(a) has the necessary qualifications, capability, experience, and, where appropriate, resources, equipment and facilities to provide the goods or services intended to be procured;

(b) has the legal capacity to enter into a contract for the procurement;

(c) is not insolvent, in receivership, bankrupt or in the process of being wound up and is not the subject of legal proceedings relating to the foregoing;

(d) is among the persons with whom the procuring entity may enter into a contract, not being precluded from doing so under section 33 of the Act;

(e) is not debarred from participating in procurement proceedings under Part IX of the Act; and

(f) is registered by the Ministry of Finance under regulation 6.

(2) A person shall not be qualified to benefit from preference and reservation scheme -

(a) as a contracting firm, unless that person is qualified as a local contractor or a citizen contractor; or

(b) as a, micro enterprise or an enterprise owner by a disadvantaged group unless the person is registered by the Ministry of finance as such upon application.
6. A small or micro enterprise or a disadvantaged group wishing to participate in public procurement shall apply for registration with the Ministry of Finance in the form set out in the First Schedule.

7. A firm shall be qualified as-
   (a) a local contractor, if it is registered in Kenya, or
   (b) a citizen contractor, if its owners and shareholders are Kenyan citizens.

8. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a foreign contractor may apply benefit from the preference and reservation scheme where it enters into a joint venture or subcontracting arrangements, as evidenced by written agreement, with a local contractor, where the local contractor has a majority share.

PART III—ADMINISTRATION OF PREFERENCE AND RESERVATION SCHEMES

9. For purposes of section 39(4)(c) of the Act the regions preference and reservations schemes is applied shall be-
   (a) constituencies;
   (b) counties; and
   (c) local authorities.

10. Local preference and reservations shall be applicable in the constituencies, local authorities and counties where citizen contractors are based and operate.

11. Local contractors who are based and operate in the regions specified in Regulation 10 shall be given exclusive preference when participating in procurements using funds from the Constituency Development Fund and the Local Authority Transfer Fund, except where it is established that local capacity is not available.

12. For purposes of section 39(4) (d) of the Act, public entities shall grant exclusive preference to local contractors offering-
   (a) motor vehicles, plant and equipment which are assembled in Kenya;
   (b) furniture, textile, foodstuffs and other goods made in Kenya;
   (c) goods manufactured, mined, extracted or grown in Kenya.
13. For the purposes of section 39(8) (a) of the Act, the threshold upto which exclusive preference shall be given to citizen contractors in all procurements using open tendering methods, shall be the sum of-

(a) five hundred million shillings for procurements in respect of road works;

(b) two hundred million shillings for procurements in respect of other works; and

(b) fifty million shillings for procurements in respect of goods or services.

14. For the purposes of section 39(8) (b) (i) of the Act, a fifteen percent margin of preference in the evaluated price of the tender shall be given to candidates offering goods manufactured, mined, extracted or grown in Kenya.

15. For the purposes of section 39(8) (b) (ii) of the Act, the margin of preference shall be-

(a) six percent of the evaluated price of the tender, where percentage of shareholding of the Kenyan citizens is less than twenty percent;

(b) eight percent of the evaluated price of the tender, where the percentage of shareholding of Kenyan citizens is less than fifty-one percent but above twenty percent; and

(c) ten percent of the evaluated price of the tender, where the percentage of shareholding of the Kenyan citizens is more than fifty percent.

16. Where citizen contractors have entered into contractual arrangements with foreign contractors pursuant to regulation 8, a ten percent margin of preference in the evaluated price of the tender shall be applied.

PART IV—GENERAL PRINCIPLES

17. A candidate shall be entitled to tender for one preference and reservation scheme at a time in a procurement proceeding.

18. Where a candidate is entitled to more than one preference scheme, the scheme with the highest advantage to the tenderer shall be applied.
19. For the purpose of ensuring maximum participation of disadvantaged groups, small and micro-enterprises in public procurement, procuring entities may unbundle goods, works and services in practicable quantities pursuant to Section 31(7) of the Act.

20. For greater certainty, unbundled procurement proceedings shall be restricted to disadvantaged groups, small and micro-enterprises.

21. (1) No tender securities shall be required from small and micro enterprises or enterprises owned by disadvantaged groups participating in procurement proceedings.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), target groups shall be required to complete and sign the Tender Securing Declaration Form set out in the Second Schedule.

(3) Any bidder from the target group who fails to adhere to the terms of the Tender Securing Declaration Form shall be liable to debarment pursuant to section 115 of the Act.

22. An enterprise registered by the Authority in a target group benefitting from the preference and reservation schemes shall be entitled to such benefits for a period of five years, which may be renewed once.

23. An advertisement relating to open tender under these Regulations shall state that such tender is open to small and micro enterprises and to disadvantaged groups registered with the Ministry of Finance.

24. Procurement of goods, works and services under these Regulations shall be conducted on competitive procedure among the qualified target groups pursuant to regulation 6.

25. Procuring entities shall make use of existing framework contracts with disadvantaged groups, small and micro enterprises wherever appropriate to provide an efficient, cost effective and flexible means to procure goods, works and services that are required repeatedly or continuously over a set period of time.
PART V—MONITORING OF COMPLIANCE

26. Application of the preference and reservations schemes by procuring entities shall be monitored by the Authority.

27. The Authority shall maintain and update a register of all small and micro enterprises and disadvantaged groups qualified to benefit from the scheme and post it in its website or dedicated portal.

28. Procuring entities shall integrate preference and reservations schemes in their procurement plans.

29. A procuring entity shall submit to the Authority the part in its procurement plan demonstrating application of preference and reservations schemes in relation to the procurement budget within sixty days after commencement of the financial year.

30. All procurement awards by procuring entities where a preference or reservation scheme was applied shall be reported to the Authority on a quarterly basis.
